H.J. Res. 62
To grant the consent of Congress to the boundary change between Georgia and South Carolina

As ordered reported by the House Committee on the Judiciary on August 3, 1999

H.J. Res. 62 would give Congressional consent to the boundary change between Georgia and South Carolina. Enacting the resolution would result in no cost to the federal government. Because enactment of H.J. Res. 62 would not affect direct spending or receipts, pay-as-you-go procedures would not apply. The resolution contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act and would impose no costs on state, local, or tribal governments.
