PREFACE

This report by the Congressional Budget Office (CBO) satisfies the requirements of section 221(b) of the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985. The purpose of the report is to help the Congress adopt authorizing legislation that should be in place before it considers the 13 regular appropriation bills for fiscal year 1998 (which begins October 1, 1997).

Ellen Hays of CBO's Special Studies Division prepared this report under the supervision of Arlene Holen and Marvin Phaup. The author gratefully acknowledges the assistance of analysts in CBO's Budget Analysis Division and the budget offices of various agencies, as well as numerous committee staff members.

Christian Spoor edited the report, and L. Rae Roy prepared it for publication. Questions about the contents should be directed to Ellen Hays at (202) 226-2616.

ERRATA

Unauthorized Appropriations and Expiring Authorizations

January 15, 1997

The National Vaccine Injury Compensation program for vaccines administered before October 1, 1988, was permanently reauthorized in the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993. Its listing under P.L. 101-239 (Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1989) as expiring at the end of fiscal year 1993 should therefore have been deleted. The item appears in Appendix A on page 16 in the House version of the report and page 34 in the Senate version of the report.

Attached are Tables 1 and 2 from the report, with revised totals reflecting correction of this error.

OVERVIEW

The Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985 requires the Congressional Budget Office (CBO) to report to the Congress each year on unauthorized appropriations and expiring authorizations. Section 221(b) of that act added the following requirement to section 202(f) of the Congressional Budget and Impoundment Control Act of 1974, as amended:

(3) On or before January 15 of each year, the Director, after consultation with the appropriate committees of the House and the Senate, shall submit to the Congress a report listing (A) all programs and activities funded during the fiscal year ending September 30 of that calendar year for which authorizations for appropriations have not been enacted for that fiscal year, and (B) all programs and activities for which no authorizations for appropriations have been enacted for the fiscal year beginning October 1 of that calendar year.

The conference report on the Balanced Budget Act states that the purpose of the requirement is "to help Congress use the early months of the year to adopt authorizing legislation that must be in place before the thirteen regular appropriation bills can be considered."

The substance of this report consists of two appendixes. Appendix A lists unauthorized appropriations: programs that have received an appropriation for fiscal year 1997 although their authorization has expired. Appendix B lists programs whose authorization will expire at the end of fiscal year 1997. The information is drawn from CBO's Legislative Classification System, a database reflecting all public laws enacted that have any effect on authorizations of appropriations—up to and including all laws enacted during the second session of the 104th Congress.

Historically, the rules of the House provide a point of order against any appropriation that is not authorized. During consideration of a bill in the House, unauthorized appropriations are sometimes dropped from the bill. However, the House Committee on Rules frequently grants waivers for unauthorized appropriations that are contained in a conference agreement. The CBO is unaware of any case in which appropriations have not been provided for a program solely because its authorization has expired.

The 104th Congress highlighted the issue of unauthorized appropriations when it adopted rules at the beginning of its first session in January 1995. Both House and Senate rules required that the subcommittees of the Committee on Appropriations list programs funded in a bill that lack an authorization in their respective committee reports. The information in the committee reports differs somewhat from the information shown in this report.

This report covers programs that at one time had an explicit authorization that either has expired or will expire. Unlike the lists shown in the Appropriations Committee reports, CBO's report does not include programs that the Congress has never authorized. For example, some Treasury Department programs have never received explicit authorizations of appropriations. (Appropriations are provided for Treasury programs nonetheless because the authority to obligate and spend funds is considered "organic"—inherent in the legislation or executive action that originally empowered a particular entity to perform a particular function.)

Many laws establish programs with authorizations of appropriations that do not expire, whether they be for specific annual dollar amounts or for "such sums as are necessary." Both the Appropriations Committee reports and this CBO report exclude programs with that type of authorization because its effect is permanent.

For all appropriated programs that at one time had an explicit authorization that has expired or will expire, the appendixes show the number and name of the public law containing the last authorization, the last year the authorization was in effect, and the amount authorized in that year. If the authorization provided for "such sums as are necessary," the report shows the amount authorized as "indefinite."

PROGRAMS FUNDED IN FISCAL YEAR 1997 WITH EXPIRED AUTHORIZATIONS OF APPROPRIATIONS

Appendix A lists programs and activities that have received a fiscal year 1997 appropriation even though their authorization has expired. If the applicable fiscal year 1997 appropriation act (or its legislative history) provides an explicit funding level for the program, that amount is shown under "Unauthorized 1997 Appropriation." If no explicit amount is provided (as when a small program is funded at an unidentified level in a large appropriation account), CBO contacts the agency's budget office to obtain the amount allocated for the program. If information is not available from either of those sources, the appendix simply notes that a specific dollar amount is unavailable.

Tables 1 and 2 summarize the amounts that Congress appropriated for fiscal year 1997 for programs and activities with expired authorizations by House and Senate authorizing committees, respectively. The largest set of such programs is the housing and community development programs of the Department of Housing and Urban Development. Those programs were last authorized for 1994, and in 1997 they are funded at just over $15.8 billion.

Programs of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration were last authorized for 1993 and are funded at $13.7 billion in 1997. Funding for foreign aid programs, the State Department, and the U.S. Information Agency that was last authorized by the Foreign Relations Authorization Act for Fiscal Years 1994 and 1995 (P.L. 103-236) and the International Security and Development Cooperation Act of 1985 (P.L. 99-83) totals just under $13.5 billion in 1997.

Approximately $11.0 billion of the appropriations provided for the Department of Justice in 1997 is considered unauthorized, despite a general provision in the applicable appropriation act that extends the Department of Justice Appropriation Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 1980 (P.L. 96-32) for another fiscal year. That $11.0 billion excludes programs authorized in the Violent Crime Control and Law Enforcement Act of 1994 (P.L. 103-322) and the Antiterrorism and Effective Death Penalty Act of 1996 (P.L. 104-132), among others.

AUTHORIZATIONS OF APPROPRIATIONS EXPIRING ON SEPTEMBER 30, 1997

Appendix B lists programs and activities whose authorizations of appropriations will expire on September 30, 1997. Unlike Appendix A, the list indicates (by public law) the amounts authorized to be appropriated for expiring programs and activities, rather than the amounts appropriated.

Tables 3 and 4 show the number of laws with expiring authorizations under the jurisdiction of each House and Senate authorizing committee and the amounts authorized in those laws for fiscal year 1997. The authorizing committees typically attempt to reauthorize programs before they are set to expire.

The largest set of expiring authorizations is the annual portion of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 1997 (P.L. 104-201). Other annual expiring authorizations include the Intelligence Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 1997 (P.L. 104-293) and the Securities and Exchange Commission Authorization Act of 1996 (P.L. 104-290).

The largest multiyear authorization that is set to expire is the Intermodal Surface Transportation Efficiency Act of 1991 (P.L. 102-240), which in 1997 authorized more than $26 billion worth of spending for federal highway, railroad, and mass transit programs (authorization for Amtrak expired in 1994.) The Higher Education Amendments of 1992 provided indefinite authorizations through 1997 for virtually all federal higher education grant programs. The General Education Provisions Act (P.L. 103-382) provides for an automatic one-year extension of all Department of Education programs as noted in the appendixes. However, the Congress is expected to begin work on a reauthorization of the higher education programs early in the 105th Congress.
