H.R. 1388
Star-Spangled Banner National Historic Trail Act

As ordered reported by the House Committee on Natural Resources on June 28, 2007

H.R. 1388 would amend the National Trails Systems Act to designate the Star-Spangled Banner Trail as a National Historic Trail. The trail of nearly 300 miles would cover parts of Virginia, Maryland, and the District of Columbia. The National Park Service (NPS) would administer the trail and coordinate the efforts of public and private entities on trail administration, planning, development, and maintenance.

Based on information provided by the NPS and assuming the availability of appropriated funds, CBO estimates that establishing, developing, and administering the proposed historic trail would cost about $2 million over the 2008-2012 period. Of this amount, we estimate that the NPS would spend about $300,000 over the next two years to prepare a comprehensive management plan for the trail. We estimate that the remaining $1.7 million would be spend over the following three years for archeological surveys, development of access sites, and interpretive materials.

H.R. 1388 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act and would impose no costs on state, local, or tribal governments.

On May 31, 2007, CBO transmitted a cost estimate for S. 797, the Star-Spangled Banner National Historic Trail Act, as ordered reported by the Senate Committee on Energy and Natural Resources on May 23, 2007. The two bills are identical, as are the CBO cost estimates.

The CBO staff contacts for this estimate are Deborah Reis and David Reynolds. This estimate was approved by Peter H. Fontaine, Deputy Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.
