H.R. 507
Pascua Yaqui Tribe Trust Land Act

As ordered reported by the Senate Committee on Energy and Natural Resources on December 21, 2013

H.R. 507 would require the Secretary of the Interior to place 20 acres of land into trust for the benefit of the Pascua Yaqui Tribe of Arizona. Based on information provided by the Department of the Interior (DOI), CBO estimates that implementing the act would have no significant impact on the federal budget. Enacting H.R. 507 would not affect direct spending or revenues; therefore, pay-as-you-go procedures do not apply.

Under the act, the Bureau of Land Management (BLM) would be required to place 10 acres of land that is currently administered by the agency into trust for the benefit of the Pascua Yaqui Tribe. In addition, if the Tucson Unified School District elects to relinquish its interest in 10 acres of land that it acquired from the federal government under the Recreation and Public Purposes Act, management of those lands would revert back to BLM, and the Secretary would be required to place them into trust for the tribe.

Based on information provided by DOI, CBO estimates that any administrative costs to carry out the legislation, which would be subject to the availability of appropriated funds, would be minimal. In addition, the affected lands do not generate any offsetting receipts for the federal government and are not expected to generate such receipts over the next 10 years.

H.R. 507 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act. Enacting the bill would benefit the Pascua Yaqui tribe.

On April 3, 2013, CBO transmitted a cost estimate for H.R. 507 as ordered reported by the House Committee on Natural Resources on March 20, 2013. The two versions of the legislation are similar, and the CBO cost estimates are the same.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is Martin von Gnechten. The estimate was approved by Theresa Gullo, Deputy Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.
