H.J. Res. 72
Granting the consent of the Congress to the Red River Boundary Compact

As ordered reported by the House Committee on the Judiciary on July 19, 2000

H.J. Res. 72 would give Congressional consent to the Red River Compact entered into by the states of Texas and Oklahoma concerning the new boundary between these states that would be established by the compact. Enacting the resolution would result in no cost to the federal government. Because enactment of H.J. Res. 72 would not affect direct spending or receipts, pay-as-you-go procedures would not apply. The resolution contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act and would impose no costs on state, local, or tribal governments.
