

CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE
COST ESTIMATE

July 3, 2001

H.R. 2137
Criminal Law Technical Amendments Act of 2001

As ordered reported by the House Committee on the Judiciary on June 26, 2001

H.R. 2137 would make several technical amendments to numerous sections of title 18 of the United States Code, and to other federal criminal laws including spelling corrections, punctuation changes, syntax revisions, and removing duplicate and erroneous references. CBO estimates that implementing H.R. 2137 would have no impact on the federal budget because all of the bill's provisions are technical in nature.

The bill would not affect direct spending or receipts; therefore, pay-as-you-go procedures would not apply. H.R. 2137 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act and would impose no costs on state, local, or tribal governments.

The CBO staff contacts for this estimate are Lanette J. Walker and Melissa Zimmerman. This estimate was approved by Peter H. Fontaine, Deputy Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.
