

CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE COST ESTIMATE

August 12, 2002

H.R. 4708 Fremont-Madison Conveyance Act

As ordered reported by the House Committee on Resources on July 24, 2002

H.R. 4708 would direct the Secretary of the Interior through the Bureau of Reclamation to convey certain components of a water distribution and drainage system to the Fremont-Madison Irrigation District in Idaho by September 2003. These components include a dam, a canal, and several wells, which are currently operated and maintained by the district and used for irrigation. The transfer would occur after the district meets its outstanding obligations under an existing repayment contract with the federal government. In addition, H.R. 4708 would require the federal government to pay half of the costs associated with the conveyance, including a review under the National Environmental Policy Act.

CBO estimates that enacting H.R. 4708 would result in an insignificant increase in offsetting receipts to the government. Since 1977, the district has repaid $225,000 of the cost of constructing several water wells. As a condition of conveyance, CBO estimates that the federal government would receive about $135,000 from the district in 2003 as the final payment under the existing repayment contract for those wells. This amount represents the net present value of the remaining obligations owed by the district. This near-term cash savings would be offset by the loss of future offsetting receipts of about $10,000 a year over the 2003-2030 period. Because enacting H.R. 4708 would affect offsetting receipts (a form of direct spending), pay-as-you-go procedures would apply. CBO also estimates that the Bureau of Reclamation would spend about $80,000 for its share of the administrative costs associated with this conveyance, assuming the availability of appropriated funds.

H.R. 4708 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act and would impose no costs on state, local, or tribal governments. This conveyance would be voluntary on the part of the district as would any costs it would incur to comply with the conditions set by the bill.
