COST ESTIMATE

July 21, 2004

H.R. 112

A bill to amend title 28, United States Code, to provide for an additional place of holding court in the District of Colorado

As ordered reported by the House Committee on the Judiciary on July 21, 2004

H.R. 112 would allow federal judges in the District of Colorado to hold court proceedings in Colorado Springs, Colorado. CBO expects that implementing the bill could increase costs to the judiciary to rent facilities in Colorado Springs to hold such proceedings. Based on information from the Administrative Office of the United States Courts, CBO estimates that any additional rental costs would not be significant over the 2005-2009 period.

Enacting H.R. 112 would not affect direct spending or revenues. H.R. 112 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act and would not affect the budgets of state, local, or tribal governments.
