H.R. 3982

A bill to direct the Secretary of the Interior to convey certain land held in trust for the Paiute Indian Tribe of Utah to the city of Richfield, Utah, and for other purposes

As ordered reported by the House Committee on Resources on September 15, 2004

CBO estimates that implementing H.R. 3982 would have no significant impact on the federal budget. Enacting H.R. 3982 would not affect revenues or directing spending. H.R. 3982 would direct the Secretary of the Interior to convey three acres of land held in trust for the Paiute Indian Tribe of Utah to Richfield, Utah, for use by a local municipal airport. Because the bill would require the city to pay all costs related to the conveyance, there would be no federal administrative costs for the transfer.

H.R. 3982 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act and would impose no costs on state, local, or tribal governments. The land conveyances authorized by this bill would be voluntary on the part of the Paiute Tribe and the city of Richfield. Any costs they might incur to comply with the conditions of the conveyance would be incurred voluntarily.
