H.J. Res. 78
A joint resolution approving the location of the commemorative work in the District of Columbia honoring former President Dwight D. Eisenhower

As ordered reported by the House Committee on Resources on March 29, 2006

CBO estimates that enacting H.J. Res. 78 would have no impact on the federal budget. Enacting the legislation would not affect direct spending or revenues. H.J. Res. 78 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act and would not affect the budgets of state, local, or tribal governments.

H.J. Res. 78 would approve the location—near the National Mall—recommended by the Secretary of the Interior for a commemorative work in the District of Columbia to honor Dwight D. Eisenhower. The Congress authorized a study for an Eisenhower memorial in 1999 and authorized the memorial in 2002.

On March 15, 2006, CBO transmitted a cost estimate for S.J. Res 28, a joint resolution approving the location of the commemorative work in the District of Columbia honoring former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, as ordered reported by the Senate Committee on Energy and Natural Resources on March 8, 2006. The two pieces of legislation are identical, as are the cost estimates.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is Matthew Pickford. This estimate was approved by Peter H. Fontaine, Deputy Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.
