H.R. 759

An act to redesignate the Ellis Island Library on the third floor of the Ellis Island Immigration Museum, located on Ellis Island in New York Harbor, as the “Bob Hope Memorial Library”

As ordered reported by the Senate Committee on Energy and Natural Resources on January 30, 2008

H.R. 759 would redesignate the Ellis Island Library in New York as the Bob Hope Memorial Library. CBO estimates that implementing this legislation would have no significant effect on the operating budget of the Ellis Island Immigration Museum, which is administered by the National Park Service (NPS). We expect that one-time costs to revise NPS brochures, maps, and signs would be minimal because most such revisions would take place in conjunction with scheduled reprinting and other routine maintenance. CBO estimates that enacting H.R. 759 would not affect revenues or direct spending.

H.R. 759 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act and would not affect the budgets of state, local, or tribal governments.
