

CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE
COST ESTIMATE

February 23, 2016

H.R. 2880
Martin Luther King, Jr. National Historical Park Act of 2015

As ordered reported by the House Committee on Natural Resources on February 3, 2016

H.R. 2880 would redesignate the Martin Luther King, Junior, National Historic Site in Atlanta, Georgia as the Martin Luther King, Junior, National Historic Park and expand its existing boundaries to include the original headquarters of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC). The SCLC is a civil rights organization co-founded by Dr. King.

Based on information provided by the National Park Service, CBO estimates that any cost to provide financial and technical assistance for maintenance and upkeep of the privately owned headquarters would be insignificant; any such spending would be subject to the availability of appropriated funds.

Because enacting H.R. 2880 would not affect direct spending or revenues, pay-as-you-go procedures do not apply. CBO estimates that enacting H.R. 2880 would not increase net direct spending or on-budget deficits in any of the four consecutive 10-year period beginning in 2027.

H.R. 2880 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act and would not affect the budgets of state, local, or tribal governments.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is Marin Burnett. The estimate was approved by H. Samuel Papenfuss, Deputy Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.
