S. 610

Thurgood Marshall's Elementary School Study Act

As ordered reported by the Senate Committee on Energy and Natural Resources on July 30, 2015

S. 610 would direct the Secretary of the Interior to study the suitability and feasibility of designating P.S. 103 in West Baltimore, Maryland, as a unit of the National Park System (P.S. 103 is the public school that Supreme Court Justice Thurgood Marshall attended as a child). CBO estimates that carrying out the proposed study would cost about $200,000; such spending would be subject to the availability of appropriated funds. Enacting S. 610 would not affect direct spending or revenues; therefore, pay-as-you-go procedures do not apply.

S. 610 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act and would not affect the budgets of state, local, or tribal governments.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is Marin Burnett. The estimate was approved by H. Samuel Papenfuss, Deputy Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.
