

CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE COST ESTIMATE

August 2, 2017

H. Con. Res. 69

A concurrent resolution authorizing the use of the Capitol Grounds for the District of Columbia Special Olympics Law Enforcement Torch Run

As ordered reported by the House Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure on July 20, 2016

H. Con. Res. 69 would authorize the District of Columbia Special Olympics Law Enforcement Torch Run to pass through the Capitol Grounds on October 6, 2017, or on such a date as the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the Senate Committee on Rules and Administration may jointly designate. CBO estimates that passage of H. Con. Res. 69 would result in no significant cost to the federal government.

Enacting H. Con. Res. 69 would not affect direct spending or revenues; therefore, pay-as-you-go procedures do not apply.

CBO estimates that enacting H. Con. Res. 69 would not increase direct spending or on-budget deficits in any of the four consecutive 10-year periods beginning in 2028.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is Matthew Pickford. This estimate was approved by H. Samuel Papenfuss, Deputy Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.
