H.R. 1808
Improving Support for Missing and Exploited Children Act of 2017

As ordered reported by the House Committee on Education and the Workforce on April 4, 2017

The National Center for Missing and Exploited Children (NCMEC) is a nonprofit organization funded mostly by the Department of Justice. H.R. 1808 would make several changes to the laws that govern the use of funds provided to NCMEC. Most of the changes would aim to streamline and reorganize how those funds are used and CBO estimates that implementing the bill would have no significant cost to the federal government.

Enacting the legislation would not affect direct spending or revenues; therefore, pay-as-you-go procedures do not apply. CBO estimates that enacting H.R. 1808 would not increase net direct spending or on-budget deficits in any of the four consecutive 10-year periods beginning in 2028.

H.R. 1808 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act and would impose no costs on state, local, or tribal governments.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is Mark Grabowicz. The estimate was approved by H. Samuel Papenfuss, Deputy Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.
