* = between zero and $500,000.

H.R. 306 would require the National Park Service (NPS) to conduct a reconnaissance survey of the Kettle Creek Battlefield site in Wilkes County, Georgia. The NPS would evaluate the likelihood that the site would meet the criteria for admission as a national park unit and report to the Congress on the survey results.

CBO assumes that the bill will be enacted in fiscal year 2020. Using information from the NPS, CBO estimates that completing the survey would cost less than $500,000; any spending would be subject to the availability of appropriated funds.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is David Hughes. The estimate was reviewed by H. Samuel Papenfuss, Deputy Director of Budget Analysis.
