S. 832 would nullify an 1865 treaty between the United States and the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs, a federally recognized Indian tribe in Oregon. According to the Department of the Interior the treaty has never been enforced. On that basis, CBO estimates that enacting S. 832 would have no effect on the federal budget.

On May 30, 2019, CBO transmitted a cost estimate for S. 832, a bill to nullify the Supplemental Treaty Between the United States of America and the Confederated Tribes and Bands of Indians of Middle Oregon, concluded on November 15, 1865, as ordered reported by the Senate Committee on Indian Affairs on May 15, 2019. The two versions of the legislation are similar, and CBO's estimates of their budgetary effects are the same.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is Jon Sperl. The estimate was reviewed by H. Samuel Papenfuss, Deputy Director of Budget Analysis.
