S. 5093 would eliminate the Advisory Committee on the Records of Congress and instead require the National Archive and Records Administration (NARA) to report annually on the management and preservation of Congressional records to the:

- Clerk of the House of Representatives;
- Secretary of the Senate;
- Archivist of the United States;
- Committees on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs, and on Rules and Administration in the Senate; and
- Committees on Oversight and Accountability and on House Administration in the House of Representatives.

Using information from NARA and the General Services Administration, CBO estimates that any net changes in administrative costs under the bill would not be significant over the 2025-2029 period. Any related spending would be subject to the availability of appropriated funds.

On October 21, 2024, CBO transmitted a cost estimate for H.R. 9489, the Advisory Committee on the Records of Congress Sunset Act of 2024, as reported by the House Committee on House Administration on September 17, 2024. The two pieces of legislation are similar and CBO's estimates of their costs are the same.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is Matthew Pickford. The estimate was reviewed by Ann E. Futrell, Senior Adviser for Budget Analysis.
